

TANRC Celebrates the Publication of VP and COO for Education Alex W. Tan in the Guinness World Records 2017 Gamer's Edition

Alex W. Tan, better known as PangaeaPanga, published as a multiple Guinness World Records title holder

For Release October 19, 2016

ROCKY HILL, CONNECTICUT – The TAN2000 International Regulatory Corporation (TANRC), the voluntary self-regulatory organization of the startup ecosystem, is proud to announce that Chief Operating Officer for Education, Alex W. Tan, known online as “PangaeaPanga”, features in the new Guinness World Records 2017 Gamers Edition.

In a double page feature, including a special photoshoot, Tan reveals his tips and insight to his work on Super Mario Maker as well as revealing his two Guinness World Records titles; Most difficult level created in Super Mario and Fastest Blindfolded speedrun of Super Mario World. Not to be outdone, Tan beat his own blindfolded record again, improving the speedrun to an amazing 15 minutes and 59 seconds.

Tan is a junior at the University of Connecticut School of Business currently pursuing a degree in Management Information Systems. Tan is also involved with the Asian-American community at the university as a mentor in the Asiantation Mentoring Program. Tan achieved this distinctive honor while working to advance the interests of the gaming community globally by educating them about the benefits of innovation on the gaming ecosystem and organizing the community to better achieve greater gaming community goals, with a focus on the Mario Maker Community. As Chief Operating Officer for Education, Tan is responsible for the Corporation's Education Program and Education Media Endorsements as part of TANRC's accreditation processes.

TANRC exists to bring together community members to build the level of trust and accountability needed for innovative economic growth. Tan's work leading the Education function focuses on educating prospective innovators and entrepreneurs about how to find trustworthy partners, spaces, and marketplaces with whom to work. TANRC's education function also seeks to educate others who can benefit from innovation, such as large corporations who can watch their product lines grow through community engagement, or even by absorbing a growing startup community into their portfolio through a mutually beneficial merger.

The Corporation stands ready to assist innovators in all industries, and those who support innovation, as innovation knows no borders.
